Most of the millennial literature aficionados would credit this particular series for inspiring a sense of passion towards reading and to English as a whole. With the booming of many interesting English series around, the Potter heads are also turned up in large numbers as sensibly seen in young generations. Even people who have never turned a single Harry Potter book are huge fans of it. We would therefore like to present a platform to showcase and demonstrate your love for Harry Potter. So, how much do you know about the boy who lived? How well you have travelled along with the "Trio"? Come, compete with fellow Potter heads and emerge as their undisputed "Elder". Wingardium Quiziosa!!!

This entire event comprises of three rounds

Test your knowledge of the Harry Potter universe with fellow competitors. Are you a true fan of Harry Potter? Well, if you are, then do you know your Hogwarts houses? Do you think you can ace this Harry Potter quiz based on spells? The quiz consists of two parts, one testing your general knowledge of Harry Potter world (no negative marking) and the other containing questions which are marked as bonus questions and awards extra points for each correct answer attempted. Be careful as the second part contains negative marking too!
