3. Participants are requested to arrive on time.
4. The judges' say is final.

Description of events:Round 1 : Block and Tackle

The event will be a single participant event wherein the participant will be given a topic which he/she will have to be able to defend/attack based on whether they are prompted to block or tackle by the judge.

Round 2: Spin a Yarn

Participants will be given 2-3 keywords from the judges around which they have to construct a coherent and entertaining story.

Round 3: Shipwreck

The situation is such that two contestants will be competing head on in an attempt to rescue themselves from a sinking ship. The ships captain has only two life jackets and the speaker who makes a better case will be rewarded with it. The decision is based on how well the contestant is able to adapt to a character given to them at the beginning of the round.
